Summer wheat seed	100 tons	("A"-commodity, for western countries)
Summer barley	130 tons	" " "
Winter rye seed	500 tons
Winter wheat seed	1,500 tons
Potatoes	100,000 tons

7. The total planned exports of sugar to all countries from the DDR for the current Five Year Plan are as follows:

1951: 170,000 tons	1953: 290,000 tons
1952: 220,000 "	1954: 300,000 "
	1955: 320,000 "

8. The 1951 exports of sugar are to be divided as follows:

USSR:	50,000 tons
West-Germany:	40,000 "
Other western countries:	60,000 "

9. The total planned exports of first quality alcohol from the DDR to all countries for the current Five Year Plan are as follows:

1951: 12,000 tons	1954: 21,500 tons
1952: 16,000 "	1955: 24,000 "
1953: 19,000 "

The above quantities are being reserved for western countries exclusively, in order to obtain hard currency. Alcohol is rated as a so-called "A"-commodity, or hard currency medium.

10. The money values (in thousands of dollars) of agricultural exports from the DDR (including sheep, horses, grain, etc.), during the Five Year Plan, are as follows:

1951: 24,400	1954: 44,400
1952: 32,800	1955: 46,800
1953: 42,400

11. At the end of April 1951, the Foreign Trade Ministry received instructions to hold in reserve the following items for an important compensation deal:

butyl acetate	2,500 tons
butanol	1,900 "
